The wedding between the Crown Princess Victoria of Sweden and Daniel Westling takes place the 19th of June 2010. In connection with the wedding Mr. Westling will be invested with the title Prince Daniel, Duke of Västergötland.

We have an idea - we will gather greetings from people around the world and out of these greetings we will make a Royal Wedding Book which we will send to the Royal family of Sweden!

Imagine such a gift, a book filled with personal greetings from people around the world!

Where did this idea come from?

Solentro has for a long time offered a simple and unique way for our users to create books together - many use this feature when making a book for a birthday or as in this case, a wedding.

- We thought it would be nice to have people from all over the world sharing their thoughts and contributing to a wonderful wedding book for the future Royal couple of Sweden, says Hampus Schildfat.

But what if you get thousands of greetings?

- That would be great, our books can be up 300 pages so we can include many greetings. If there are too many we will make volume 2 and 3 and so on... , says Tobias Schildfat with a smile on his face.

Do you think the Royal family will enjoy the book?

- They will probably receive many beautiful gifts but this one is special. Personal greetings from people around the world will be very memorable. Hopefully they will appreciate it, says Hampus Schildfat.

Please tell your friends!

Have a great weekend!
