

Delivery before Christmas!

To be able to deliver your book before Christmas you need to place your order before the 9th of December!

"When I opened my Christmas present I was really surprised, it was a real book about me! My family had gathered greetings and stories from old friends and relatives, it was great to read. /Evy from Torrance, California

A tip! Use the e-mail based invitation service and your guests' greetings and photos will automatically end up in the book!
