Summer is finally here!

We love the summer, maybe that's why Solentro begins with the word "Sol" which means "sun" in Swedish. But what does Solentro mean? Find out here!

The Swedish summer is somewhat special and unique. In the south the sun doesn't set until late at night and far up in the north the sun never sets - it's daylight night and day!

We have many beaches and the archipelago's are amazing. There is plenty of wilderness and the public right to camp and explore these surroundings is outstanding!

We wish you a great summer, we hope that you will enjoy yourself and that the summer fills you with energy and inspiration to continue to play and enjoy life!

Also, if you haven't seen the movie \(500\) Days of Summer, please do, we highly recommend it!

Relax, enjoy the moment and don't forget to take some time to smell the yellow roses!

PS 1 Send your greeting to the Royal family of Sweden - they're getting married this weekend!

PS 2 To all of you who are reprinting an old book, don't forget to PREVIEW your book before placing your order - our new features may have affected your book.

Sunny greetings!

/Hampus & Tobias Schildfat, brothers and founders
