

The funniest graduation picture?

Congratulations to all students who are graduating (or already have)!

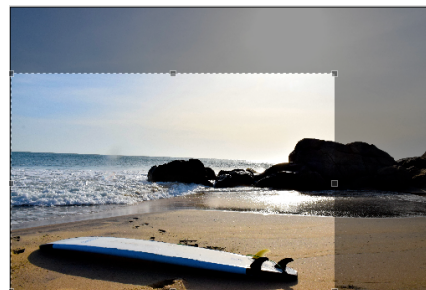

Cherish the moment and keep the memories close to your heart. A good idea is to put the memories in print while they are still fresh in mind - make a book today!

Invite friends and family to contribute using our email based invitation service to retrieve the material easily and fast - you can create the memory of a lifetime!

The possibility to crop your background pictures!

Solentro has further developed its features. From now on you can crop all images you place in your book, even "Custom background"-images.

Drag and drop an image to the space in the Custom background-window to use it as a background in your book. Use a custom background for the cover, single page or an entire spread. You may of course put other images and texts on top of it later by using our different page templates.

Good luck with your book!

Exceptional satisfaction!

Solentro provides a great product

Solentro provides a great product! The web site worked well to create the book. The options and selections of books is more than I could have asked for. I was a bit nervous about how the book would turn out, but the final result is better than expected. Thank you for doing a great job with my book.
